VIRGIL O. STRICKLER LECTURES HERE ON CHRISTIAN SCIENCE

belief into a material place somewhere in the sky, with trappings of material splendor such as one would expect to find in the palaces of men.

Since the human mind is prevented by its own materiality from comprehending God as Spirit and the kingdom of heaven as a spiritual state of consciousness, it is equally prevented from thinking of man as spiritual. By reason of the same inevitable reversal it thinks of man as material and hence sees him as such.

The Adam Man

But no matter how sincerely people may believe that God is a magnified man, seated upon a material throne, and having a material habitation in a material place called heaven, such belief does not make it true. God is Spirit, and His universe is wholly spiritual. There is not one material element in Him nor in anything that He created. He did not create matter in any form, nor did He create a material man. God created everything spiritually, and the only kind of man created by Him is the perfect spiritual man, made in His own image and likeness, precisely as described in the first chapter of Genesis.

The Adam-man, is not the image of God, and in the second account of the creation in the second chapter of Genesis it is nowhere stated that the Adam-man was made in God's image and likeness, or that he was made perfect. Those statements are to be found in relation to the real man, but in spite of this, people have gone on believing that the Bible taught that Adam was made in God's image.

Christian Science is the only system of teaching that knows anything about that even makes an attempt to explain the difference between man and the Adam-man, and it does explain it and makes the fact perfectly plain, by pointing out, as has already been said, that the Adam-man is merely the false material mis-concept of man. It is as though one were to look through green eyeglasses. As long as he did so, everything would appear to be green. If he were to try to remove the green from an object, he could not do so, for the reason that the green was not in the object, though appearing to be there, but was in the lens through which he looked at it. The only thing necessary for him to do in order to translate the entire green universe back into its normal aspect would be merely to take off the green lenses.

In precisely the same way the material universe and material man are translated back into the spiritual, where in fact they have always been, by merely taking off the material eyeglasses through which we have looked at them. If it were conceivable that one could now rid himself of every material element in his mentality, and of every sin and false belief so that nothing remained in his consciousness except the spiritualized thought, he would not then see his fellow man as material, but would see him for what he really is, namely the perfect spiritual child of God.

From the foregoing consideration of the subject of man, and of the difference between spiritual man and the so-called material man, it is obvious that there are certain questions concerning the nature and character of matter that may be examined with much profit.

Matter.

Since the material man is only the carnal mind's mis-concept of man, it allows that matter has no entity, and is in every case nothing but material thought objectified. Christian Science shows that "there is no life, truth, intelligence, nor substance in matter," Science and Health, page 468, lines 3 and 10, and that, "Matter has no sensation," ibid., 485-3. Everything in the objective world, which appears to human sense as matter, is merely the visible manifestation of material thought, formed in the material or carnal mind, and cognized by the physical senses as a material thing. If these statements concerning matter be true it will be seen at a glance that they will explain many phenomena in human experience which hitherto have been unexplainable. That they are true is now settled absolutely and conclusively, as will be seen.

When Mrs. Eddy first made the discovery that matter in every form has no intelligence, life, sensation, or substance, but is merely the false mental concept of the material or carnal mind, her statements were not accepted as true by physical scientists. They declared that matter was real substance. They asserted that every object, whether it be a star, a flower, a rock, or the human body, was composed of atoms brought together and held together under varying conditions, and that the atom was material. Hence they said that since the starting point of matter was the material atom, matter must of necessity be substance.

Mrs. Eddy took no pains to defend her statements upon the subject. She had seen the truth about it, and knowing that it was the truth, she was quite content to let the statement of her discovery go into consciousness, well knowing that in the end the truth would prevail. It is most interesting, therefore, to observe what has taken place since then. Within recent years a physical scientist discovered that the atom is not the starting-point of matter, and that the atom is itself composed of electrons. When asked to state the nature and character of the electron, he said that it was energy, which is not material substance. Since then the physicists have come out frankly and fairly and now say that any inquiry concerning the nature and character of the electron should be referred to the metaphysician, and that the whole subject belongs to the domain of metaphysics and not physics.

The far-reaching effect of this is at once apparent, for it frankly admits that the starting-point of matter is not material, but mental.

Cause and Cure of Disease.

The importance of this cannot be overestimated. All sin, disease, and death come from the belief of life, intelligence, sensation, and substance in matter. If it be true, and it now seems to be settled, that there is no life in matter, that it has no sensation or intelligence, and is not substance, then it follows that all material theories concerning disease, and the method of solving all human problems, will have to be changed from a material to a spiritual basis. If matter is itself merely a thing of thought objectified it follows that disease in whatever form is also merely the objectification of disease beliefs upon the human body, and that such beliefs originate in the carnal mind, and not in the body, but are manifested on the body only after they are formulated in the material or carnal mind. If this be true, and it is true beyond all possible question, it then follows that the correct way to treat disease is not through matter, nor by giving material remedies and drugs to the body, but by destroying the images of disease out of the human mind.

Every one must see at a glance that disease is not itself an entity. It has no mind, intelligence, volition, nor presence. Disease is neither self-created nor was it created by God. It originates in the first instance in the carnal human mind in the form of disease thought, and is then objectified on the body by the material beliefs of that same carnal mind. The true way to cure it, therefore, is to give to the human mind something that will neutralize and destroy the disease-producing qualities and beliefs. The thing that does this is the Christ-truth, which Christian Science brings to the human mind, and in this way Christian Science has healed very many people from all kinds of disease.

No Substance in Matter.
Jesus knew that there was no substance in matter, and he knew it so perfectly that he walked through solid doors and walls. He knew what was truly about matter, namely, that it is only the manifested belief of the material, carnal mind, and since he did not have that material mind, matter did not appear to him as substance. His consciousness was spiritualized. He knew that the only substance is Spirit, but because of the material element in their consciousness the people were unable to see or comprehend Spirit as substance. They could only think of matter as substance, and therefore to them matter appeared as substance.

Knowing that there was no substance in matter, he knew that man was not material. Mrs. Eddy pointed out many years ago in Science and Health (see pp. 476, 477) that Jesus saw the real man where mortals saw the mortal man, and that his true view healed the sick. The more one ponders over this statement the more it comes apparent that it is necessarily true. When there came to Jesus the man who had been born blind, and who had grown from infancy to mature years without the perfect organs of sight, Jesus healed him instantly. He looked through the material veil and saw the real man, who, in every case, is perfect. Jesus knew that God had never created one of his children without sight. God never made an imperfect man. Man being perfect, he has perfect spiritual senses, and by seeing the perfect man, Jesus pulled away the mask and allowed the perfect condition to appear. When the paralytic was brought to him, Jesus, by seeing the real man, pulled away the mask created by the material beliefs of the carnal mind, thus allowing the real condition of harmony and perfect being to appear. The real man is instantaneously healed. Since the real man is perfect in every case, when the imperfect material beliefs are destroyed by the operation of the truth, human beings cannot fail to manifest improved conditions.

Jesus also knew that since man was not material and does not live in matter, he could not die in matter. He knew this so clearly that he was able to call Lazarus forth after his body had been in the tomb for four days. Jesus knew that real man, being spiritual, can never die, for God is his life. When he stood before the tomb of Lazarus he knew that the only thing that had taken place there was that certain human beings, who were governed by the carnal mind, had accepted a changed belief concerning Lazarus. They believed that he had lived in matter and was material, and hence that he had died in matter. Jesus looked through the mask and saw the real man who was alive all of the time, and by seeing the real man, Jesus destroyed the false concept, and thus made it possible for the real condition of life to appear. Having seen the real man, who was alive every instant, all that Jesus needed to do was to say, "Lazarus, come forth," and he came forth, alive.

Man is Now the Son of God.
Do you think it is arrogant too much for us to claim that we are now the children of God? If so, then read what St. John says in I John, 3:2: "Beloved, now are we the sons of God, and it doth not yet appear what we shall be; but we know that, when he shall appear we shall be like him; for we shall see him as he is."

In making this statement it was as though John had said, "Jesus has now taught me the truth about myself. I know that we are spiritual and not material. I cannot tell you what my spiritual self looks like, for I cannot see the spiritual man through material eyes, but I know that when he shall appear we shall be like him."

St. Paul has said substantially the same thing in Romans 8:16, 17, where we read, "We are the children of God; and if children, then heirs; heirs of God, and joint-heirs with Christ." Every one knows that when an estate is left to heirs, jointly, they take it share and share alike. If we are joint heirs with Christ, we have inherited the same spiritual being, the same life, the same immortality. It is through the understanding and apprehension of our real being that we rise above the fears and material beliefs of the carnal mind. In this way Christian Science heals the sick, regenerates the sinner, destroys fear, and brings peace in place of discord.

Jesus said, "Come unto me all ye that labour and are heavy laden, and I will give you rest." and Christian Science is teaching the human race that the true way to come unto him is to live the life that he lived, to manifest the Love that he manifested, and to demonstrate the Truth that he taught.

The belief that man is now material, but that his immortality will appear after the death of his physical body, is rapidly giving place to a better understanding. It is beginning to become tolerably clear to many people that death is not the doorway through which human beings pass from a material state of existence into the kingdom of heaven.

St. Paul taught and declared that death is an enemy that can and will be destroyed. Ennah got rid of his physical body without dying. Elijah did the same. Obviously they destroyed and got rid of every material and erroneous mental quality. This evangelization went on until there was nothing left in their consciousness but the spiritualized thought. They brought every material thought into obedience to Christ, and when the last mortal thought had thus been conquered and destroyed there was nothing of the carnal mind left in their consciousness to throw a material concept over them. People were then no longer able to see them as material men. They literally walked with God, as the Bible states, for material beliefs of the carnal mind no longer intervened to separate them from Him.

Jesus submitted to the crucifixion of his body on the cross in order that he might be the Wayshower. He had already raised from the dead Lazarus, and the daughter of Jairus, and the son of the widow of Nain, but he wanted to go farther and prove for the benefit of mankind that death is not a divine necessity and that it is possible for one to conquer it for himself through his own understanding of the law of life. He wanted to prove that man is now immortal and that his immateriality is brought to light not by the death of the physical body but by demonstrating the power of Spirit. He, therefore, resuscitated his own body, after it had been in the tomb until the third day. He brought it back and exhibited it to hundreds of people, so that there might not be any question or dispute about it. There after he got rid of his body precisely as Enoch and Elijah had done. He thus proved the omnipotence of Spirit and its availability to meet the last and final human need. He proved that God is Life, and that man is now immortal and can never die, and that even the belief in death, that exists nowhere except in the carnal mind, can be destroyed by the truth which he taught.

That Film on Teeth See How They Look Without It

All Statements Approved by High Dental Authorities

Watch Them Whiten As the film disappears. You will know then what clean teeth mean.

Your teeth are not clean. You can feel a slimy film. Probably the film has dimmed them—some tartar may have formed.

Your present methods of brushing do not end film, and that is the teeth's great enemy. Now we ask you to try a new method—try it at our cost—and compare results.

Film Can Be Ended Now

Most tooth troubles are due to that film. It is film that discolors—not the teeth. It is the basis of tartar. It holds food substance which ferments and forms acid. It holds the acid in contact with the teeth to cause decay.

Millions of germs breed in it. They, with tartar, are the chief cause of pyorrhea.

The film clings to the teeth, enters crevices and stays. Brushing does not end it. No ordinary tooth paste can dissolve it. Night and day it may do a ceaseless damage. And millions find, as a result, that ordinary brushing does not save the teeth.

Now dental science, after many years, has found a film combatant. The facts have been proved by convincing clinical and laboratory tests. The method is today approved by leading dentists everywhere.

For home use this method is embodied in a dentifrice called Pepsodent. And we are mailing 10-Day Tubes to all who ask, to let everyone see its effects.

The Pepsin Method

Pepsodent is based on pepsin, the digestant of albumin. The film is albuminous matter. The object of Pepsodent is to dissolve it, then to day by day combat it.

Science has found a harmless method of activating pepsin. The usual method is an acid harmful to the teeth. So pepsin long seemed barred.

Now pepsin can be constantly applied—can be left to linger between the teeth. Now you can every day combat this film in a simple, dainty way.

Millions of teeth are being cleaned in this new way. You can see them everywhere—white, glistening teeth.

Send this coupon for a 10-Day Tube. Note how clean the teeth feel after using. Mark the absence of the slimy film. See how the teeth whiten as the fixed film disappears.

Learn what clean teeth mean—see how they look. Then decide for yourself between the old methods and the new. Cut out the coupon now.
